Registration In Schools Is Reported

Antioch area and village schools reported both increases and declines in registrations for opening day as compared to last year.

Wednesday noon reports to The Antioch News showed increases in at least four schools—Lake Villa, B. J. Hooper, Oakland and Grass Lake—and declines in Antioch Township high school, Hickory, Antioch Grade and Channel Lake.

Here near Antioch, Grass Lake school listed 148 students registered on opening day as compared to 140 in 1959-60.

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP high school told of 694 on the first day as compared to just over 700 last year.

ATHS reported 218 in the freshman class this year, 178 sophomores, 144 juniors and 156 seniors.

Oakland grade school reported 273 or an increase of about 40 over last year, but 456 registered at Antioch grade school was down from about 470.

Channel Lake listed 131 registered on the first day as compared to 151 last year.

An increase of about 100 students at the Hooper and Lake Villa schools was listed but it was not certain Wednesday noon the exact totals for each. The 100 was an increase over the 1,050 for the two schools last year.

HICKORY GRADE school said 22 had registered opening day as compared to 29 last year. A few more are expected to sign up there.

St. Peter's Parochial school in Antioch reported a 30-pupil increase over 1959-60, from 400 total registration to 430.

Emmons school listed a rise from last year's opening registration of 73 to 88 this year with another two or three signed up since.

Neighboring Wisconsin schools reported opening day registrations as follows: Trevor 104, Wilmot Grade 100 (as compared to 94 in 1959-60), Central high 605 (580), Wilmot high 341 (317), Holy Name (Wilmot) 291 (272) and Salem Graded 412.

Statistics were not available comparing this school year with last at Salem and Trevor Graded schools.

Two Phone Supervisors Honored With Awards

SOMETHING NEW IS ADDED. This room 4 on the first floor of Antioch Township high school as it looked to students on the first day of classes this week after "risers" had been added to the room. The height of the back row of "risers" can be ascertained when comparing it to the blackboard in the background. This will be used as a music room for vocal work, the students sitting in these chairs being able to see the leader much more easily than formerly when the chairs were all at the same level. A piano (on which the camera was placed for this photo) is also in the room. (Antioch News photo)

Fast Action by Water Patrolmen, Others After 2 Boating Mishaps

Fast action by water patrolmen and civilians prevented possible serious injuries in two separate boating mishaps on Lake Marie during the Labor Day weekend, one involving a boat explosion and the other a runaway boat.

Four persons leaped from a flaming boat into the water Monday afternoon and were taken ashore by a civilian and the Chain-O-Lakes Water Patrol.

Saturday evening two deputies in a sheriff's water patrol boat rammed into the side of a speeding driverless outboard to keep it from running down three persons floundering in the water.

Don Manella, 18, of Chicago was slightly burned on the right arm in the boat fire. He was given first aid by the Antioch Rescue squad and taken to an Antioch doctor for further observation.

According to Bruce Wilson, 17, of Chicago, operator of the boat, the explosion occurred when he was changing gas tanks about 75 feet from shore.

Manella, Wilson and Gino Battistoni, 17, of Chicago were picked up and taken ashore by Lt. William Davidson and Patrolman Carl Juul of the Chain O' Lakes Water Patrol.

Another passenger, Miss Terry Jurkevics, Chicago, was picked up by J. L. Quinlan, Maywood, Ill., who was passing in his own boat.

The boat, 16 ft., with a 60 h. p. motor, was rated as a total loss. Valued at close to $2000, it was owned by William Wilson, 56, father of the operator.

In the Saturday accident, on the same lake, three passengers were flipped from their 14 ft outboard as they made a turn.

The pilotless boat sped in a circle and headed back toward the three in the water.

Deputy sheriffs Ralph Buikema and Adam Skurzenta, of the Sheriff's Water Patrol, rammed their patrol boat into the side of the runaway craft to send it veering in another direction.

The deputies then rescued the three passengers who were having difficulty staying afloat, witnesses said. Taken from the water were Edward Dogan, 17, Northlake, operator of the boat, his sister, Caroline Dogan, 15, and Judy Riely, 15, Northlake. None was injured.

Meanwhile a Chain O' Lakes Water Patrol Unit, manned by Patrolmen Charles Nelson and John Wiley, pursued the runaway outboard.

Nelson managed to grasp a ski tow rope dragging from the craft and hold it back until he could jump aboard and turn off the motor. Nelson suffered slight rope burns.

John Schimel, chief of the Chain

O' Lakes Water Patrol, said that traffic on the chain on Sunday was the heaviest it had been all season, and probably the highest of record here.

It tapered down only slightly on Labor Day. Schimel added that boaters seemed to generally observe water rules of the road well during the three-day holiday.

Elmer Rentner of Harden street, an employee at the First National Bank of Antioch, is in Victory Memorial hospital, Waykagan. He underwent surgery and expected to be there for another week.

New Teachers Introduced In Pictures and Article

Eight of the 14 new teachers added to the staff of Antioch Township high school for the 1960-61 school year are listed here with brief sketches about each of them, their educational and teaching (if any) backgrounds.

The ANTIOCH NEWS published similar sketches about six of the 14 in last week's edition. Pictures of the eight listed this week will be found elsewhere on the front page. These 14 greeted students for the first time this week as sessions opened at ATHS.

WILLIAM EHLERDING will teach German and mathematics in the high school. He is a graduate of Loyola university. His last high school teaching assignment was at Bonita high school, LaVerne, Calif.

MRS. GLADYS BROOKS received her master's degree in health education from the University of Michigan. She will teach physical education and health subjects and serve as dean of girls.

MISS ELSA TYNDALL has taught for several years in Illinois high schools. She comes to Antioch from Effingham high school. Miss Tyndall will serve as full time librarian. She has a master's degree in library science from the University of Kentucky.

BERNARD FOSMARK will teach English. He received his diploma from Taber high school, Alberta, Canada, and his bachelor's degree from Trinity College, Chicago.

In 1959 BENJAMIN WILLIAMS received his bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois university. He will teach in the industrial arts department.

LUCIEN McLEAN recently retired from the U. S. army. While in the service he was an officer and master sergeant. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago. McLean will teach in the social studies department.

WILLIAM HOSSICK holds a master's degree from the university of Michigan. He will serve as guidance co-ordinator for the high school. Hossick was formerly guidance director of the Harlem public schools at Rockford.

WILLIAM NEUMAN is a 1960 graduate of Northern Illinois university. He will teach in the business education department.

State Says No More Connections To System Until Plant Expanded

The village of Antioch has received notice from the Illinois sanitary water board that the board "will not issue permits for additional sanitary sewer extensions... until final plans for plant expansion to adequately serve the present and future population are submitted and approved."

This in effect prevented the village from possibly granting the request of Art and Robert Lubkeman that they be connected to the village sewage system.

It also pointed up estimates by village engineer David Miller on a proposed expansion of the local sewage system and plant expansion.

Miller told the village board at its monthly meeting Tuesday evening he estimated the improvements the board thought necessary would cost close to $280,000 plus another $205,000 for connecting Oakwood Knolls.

Broken down, this would include in the village work $165,000 for the sewage plant expansion, $54,700 for a 10-inch water main on Anita avenue, $20,000 for 2,800 feet of sewer main from Anita avenue to the plant and $20,000 for a lift station near the Soo Line tracks.

The lift station is necessary because of the low land east of the tracks.

Looking toward Oakwood Knolls, a project to install sewers in that subdivision was estimated to cost $151,818. In addition another $52,100 would be needed for a sewer main along Anita street and North avenue to the lift station.

Financing of the Oakwood Knolls project would be a special assessment bond issue with people in that area paying the costs.

Ida Ave. Bids Tabled a Month; Tax Levy Okayed

Four bids on the improving of Ida avenue, including curbs, gutters, pavement and storm sewer, were tabled after being opened at a meeting of the Antioch village board Tuesday evening.

Submitting offers on the work were Skokie Valley Asphalt Co. of Waukegan, who bid $29,568; Eric Bolander of Libertyville, $28,620; Liberty Asphalt Construction Co. of Grayslake, $29,400, and Lakeland Construction Co. of McHenry, $27,981.30.

Bids were referred to village engineer David Miller and a village board committee to study and then it was voted to table the bids.

The engineer's estimate on the work was about $22,000.

It was believed that some changes in the specifications for the job could be made to lower the bidding prices.

In other action Tuesday night, the board passed a tax levy ordinance to raise $48,850, including $31,050 for the general fund.

The total also includes $7,000 for streets and bridges, $6,200 for fire protection, $2,600 for bond indebtedness, and $2,000 for social security.

The difference between the $48,850 to be raised through tax levies and the appropriations totaling $164,200 approved this past July will be obtained through sales taxes, fines, permits and the like.

Board members told that the village streets are in good condition and that the major improvement still in the books for this fall is that of Hillside avenue.

Action will be taken by the village to stop feeding of storm water into the village's sanitary sewer instead of storm sewer on Victoria street.

DEAR READER News Editorials

And Where Were You Labor Day?

A photograph taken Sunday morning on Grand Avenue just east of Lake Villa by Editor-Photographer Henry L. Green shown elsewhere on this page, points up what can happen on our narrow highways when traffic becomes particularly heavy.

Green went out looking for pictures to use to point up holiday traffic and he did not have far to go from Antioch.

The photo shows Grand Avenue about 100 feet east of the Deep Lake road as it looked just before 11:30 Sunday morning as cars were strung out as far as the eye could see—headed west toward Lake Villa.

Apparently a traffic light at Grand Avenue and highway 83-21 was stopping traffic on Grand Avenue this far from the intersection, about half a mile away.

Saturday had been comparatively quiet as far as traffic on the highways around here was concerned and even boats were moving on the lakes at less than expected volume for the first full day of a holiday weekend.

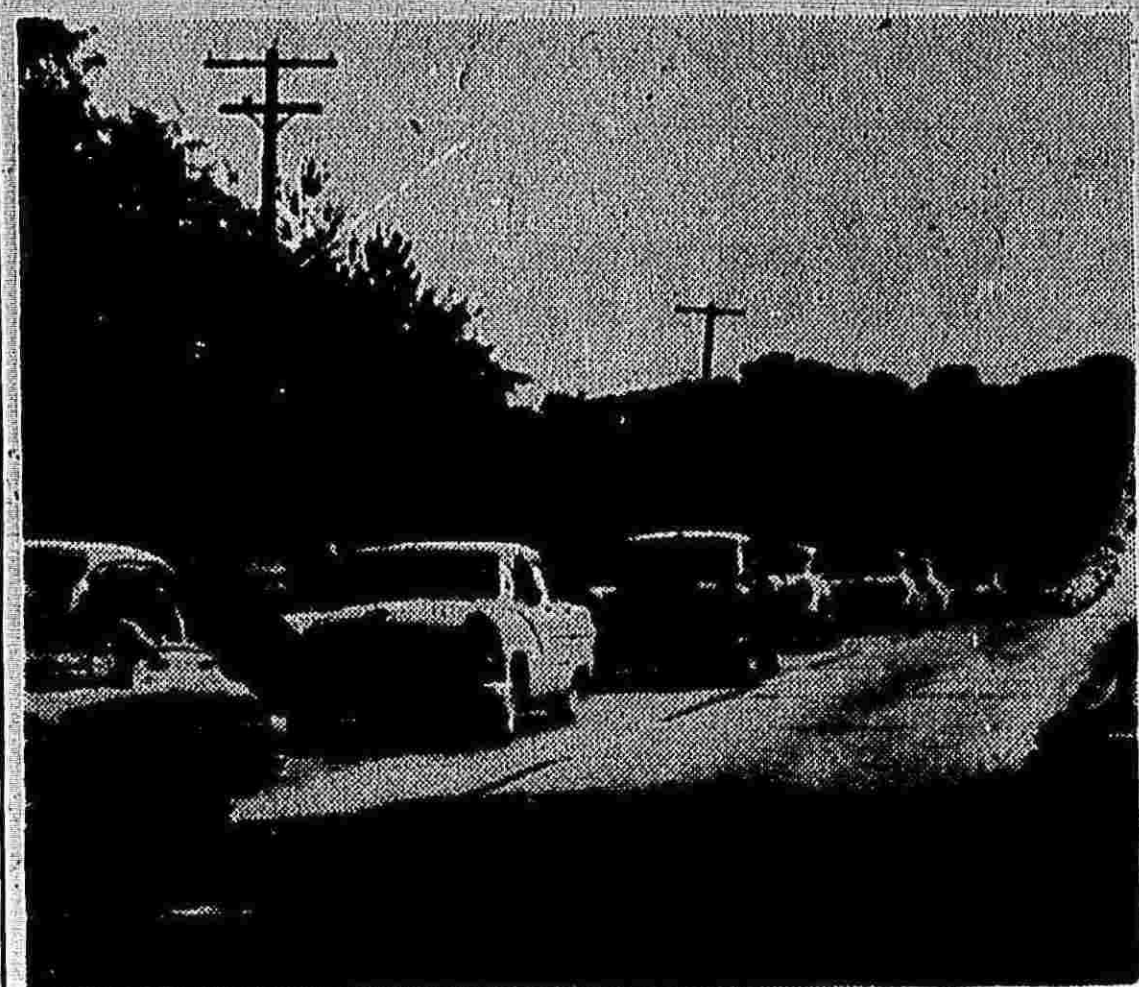

Maybe you and the rest of the motorists decided the roads would be too busy Saturday and you would start out Sunday morning instead to go to your Aunt Min's home or to the lakefront cottage.

The vehicles in the photo probably came off the tollway and thus traffic piled up even more than it might if they had come out on two or three separate highways.

Route 173 at that time was not as heavily traveled, although earlier at routes 59 and 173 it took some patience, a quick accelerator and some nerve to go across the intersection with any success.

TRAFFIC WAS HEAVY on Grand Avenue (route 132) just east of Lake Villa when the cameraman stopped by about 11:30 Sunday morning. He had turned east off the Deep Lake road and had parked in the entrance to a farm. This line of cars was headed toward Lake Villa and apparently was stopped even this far back (half mile or more) by the traffic light at routes 83-21 and Grand Avenue. Autos are visible in the distance as far as one can see toward Lindenhurst. One eastbound vehicle is dimly seen in the deep background in the other lane. Traffic numbers picked up considerably Sunday after a "slow" Saturday. (Antioch News photo)

Courthouse Notebook—

BY LOU DURKIN

Judging from the interest displayed in the hearing on the acquisition of land for the new Lake County Forest Preserve District this new agency of the county could develop into an emotion-arouser to equal zoning, schools and motherhood.

Those who favor the establishment of a Lake County Forest Preserve District are militant in their insistence that part of the county countryside should be set aside for the enjoyment of future generations.

Those opposed to the forest preserve idea are just as vehement and label the idea "socialism", "crackpot", and "meddling".

Yet many of those opposed to creation of a county forest preserve district are from cities or villages which maintain handsome parks and playgrounds which is considered sound planning and desirable.

Those charged with the responsibility of securing land for the district are finding it as hard to satisfy as do those municipalities which have turned to sanitary landfill as the most desirable form of garbage disposal.

Everyone favors the idea "as long as it isn't on my property or in my neighborhood."

County Board Chairman Karl Berning has suggested that perhaps the Forest-Preserve District could take a hand in solving the problem of the Dutch Elm disease which is destroying hundreds of elm trees in Lake County.

This would be a good way for the district to establish good will and prove its worth to the people of the county, or at least to that portion of the population who have forgotten already that the district was established by a vote of the people.

Berning, who is the supervisor from West Deerfield and has been in the shadows during much of his time on the county board, is proving to be one of the most progressive and forward-looking chairman to fill the post in many years.

It was Berning who came forward with the idea of a finance director for the county to provide the board's Finance Committee and all county departments with accurate financial facts on which to base fiscal decisions.

He also established a special citizens' committee to study the feasibility of establishing a Public Works Commission and Department to coordinate and plan projects in a variety of fields which will have a county-wide influence.

Taxpayers and officials of taxing bodies long have insisted that most complaints about taxes stem from the feeling that everyone isn't paying his full share of the burden.

To eliminate this complaint the state revenue department several years ago decided to apply a multiplier to county assessments to bring assessments on a county basis to an equal level throughout the state.

More recently the office of County Supervisor of Assessments was created to establish uniformity of assessments at the local level, on personal property as well as real estate.

Lake County's assessment supervisor Robert Jasper directed assessors to evaluate automobiles at 37½ percent of the finance value of the car as established by the dealers' handbook.

Consequently many people found their cars being hiked in value, some over the previous year, so there has been a great furor raised about auto assessments.

Perhaps they are too high, but according to Jasper, Lake County's assessments are far below those of most comparable counties.

The personal property tax is unquestionably an unpopular tax, but some of its unpopularity has been due to discrimination and inequality.

If Jasper succeeds in getting all assessments on an equal basis so that everyone is paying his fair share we would say he is doing a fine job that has been long overdue.

DID YOU KNOW that at one time back before 1900 Antioch, or at least part of the village, considered obtaining its water from Waukesha, Wis.?

The story goes that when Waukesha installed a water main from that community some 40 or 50 miles north of Antioch through this village on its way to Chicago that Antioch might "tap" it for its water supply.

One story that goes the rounds here is that some people, at least, were going to connect with the main and thereby obtain some of the famous water that was here on its way to the Chicago Fair of the 1890's.

Waukesha vowed it would furnish its then (as now) famous drinking water for those at the World's fair that wished what the Wisconsin town called "better water than you could find in the Windy City."

The main went down what is now Main street of Antioch and if you dig in the right places you will still find the pipe.

Antioch village crews have come across it now and then, one time being not so long ago when digging up Main street near the high school. Then they were looking for the village's own water main. But what showed instead or at least the first water pipe that appeared, was the Waukesha line.

NEEDLESS TO SAY if Antioch either as a village or individuals had obtained water from this Waukesha main, this small village in northern Illinois might have ranked in some respects to New York city and other cities.

No, we don't mean it would compare in population or even in area, but it might compare to these large cities in the realm of obtaining its water supply from a long distance from town.

Fifty miles or so is quite a distance even in these days to pipe water.

Of course the city of Waukesha (we presume) paid for the original pipe and probably the village of Antioch or any other community that hooked on would not have to pay for it.

But still the charges Waukesha might have made for the water might have been high enough to help pay for that 100 miles or so pipe from the Wisconsin city to the south side of Chicago.

Recreational Survey
Starts Here Sept. 6

Information on the recreational activities of Americans will be collected by the U. S. Census Bureau in a series of four sample surveys to be conducted here and in 329 other areas of the country during the next ten months.

Members of a number of local families, selected by means of the census bureau's scientific sampling program, will be interviewed in the first survey which begins on September 6.

The remaining three surveys in the series will be carried out in December of this year, and in March and June of 1961.

A district commissioners meeting for North Shore Area Council Boy Scouts of America, will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday, October 4, in the scout house at Antioch, a bulletin from the council announced this week.

Asks Caution
With Schools
In Session

As thousands of youngsters attend school for the first time in their young lives, the Chicago Motor club urges parents to do their part in seeing to it that their youngsters get to and from school safely.

J. J. Cavanagh, president of the motor club, noted that "one of the most important things parents can do to prepare their children for the school year is to make certain that the youngsters are traveling to and from their destination over the safest route possible."

He strongly urged parents to assist in planning their children's route, and in case of youngsters starting school for the first time, suggested that a parent walk the child to and from school for the first few weeks.

The motor club also advised parents to emphasize the following safety tips to their children:

When crossing a street, stay within painted crosswalk lines. Never cross in the middle of the block.

Watch traffic signals at all times. Make certain you have the green light before starting across the street.

Always obey policemen, School Safety Patrol members, and adult crossing guards.

—Be calm while crossing a street. Walk, don't run.

18 Expectant Mothers
Attend McHenry Class

Eighteen expectant mothers were registered for the second series of prenatal lectures, "From Here to Maternity"—scheduled to begin Tuesday at McHenry hospital.

Sessions will be held for four consecutive Tuesdays at 7:30 p. m.

Those interested in enrolling may do so by contacting Dr. Berman's nurse, EVergreen 5-1050.

There will be no charge for the course.

H. C. Schadeberg Lists Reasons For Nomination

Henry C. Schadeberg, Republican candidate for congress from the First district, has made six visits to Antioch area in Wisconsin in the campaign prior to the primary election September 13.

Schadeberg, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church in Burlington, has been a strong advocate of conservation, primarily soil conservation.

He has often pointed to the soil reserve bank as the primary step toward solving the farm problem, and has been an advocate of forest, wild life and marine life conservation.

He feels that as a minister he is well qualified to handle people's needs and that is what a representative should be.

The basis of Schadeberg's stands are founded on his background and principles.

"I am a candidate for congress because I feel we're de-emphasizing the individual and overemphasizing paternalistic government. Paternalistic government removes individual responsibility. The least government is the best government."

"We have not pursued our national purpose," he charged. "We think government is only the business of professional politicians, and not the business of people. But congress is for people."

"We have been going toward the welfare state, and are moving toward socialism. We have taken restrictions for granted and have piled more functions onto the government."

"The purpose of government is not to provide material wants, but to create a social, political and economic climate in which every individual can decide his destiny," said Schadeberg, a graduate of Garrett Biblical Institute.

"Government should be by and for the people as individuals and not as pressure or interest groups."

Schadeberg is an active Rotary and American Legion member.

He has stated that individual laboring men should have more to say about union decisions, and that the individual should do as much as possible for medical care for the aged.

Schadeberg has disclosed that if he is elected, he will set up a committee throughout the first district as liaison between himself and voters.

Otto Kerner Estate Near Antioch Entered

Lake county sheriff's deputies this week were probing the apparent entering of the Otto Kerner estate near Antioch which took place some time late last week.

Henry Lubkeman, caretaker of the Democratic candidate for governor's home said a small front door window had been broken. A closer check of the building showed a basement window grill had been broken. Doors and dresser drawers apparently had been opened throughout the house, deputies said.

Kerner was campaigning in down-state Illinois at the time.

Library News

"Creative Hands," by Doris Cox and Barbara Warren, is an instruction book for the person who wishes to make beautiful objects for home decoration and personal accessories.

A wide variety of materials are used and many methods from stitching to soldering.

Lillian Gilbreth, mother of the famous Gilbreth family, has long been famous for her pioneering work in time and motion study.

In collaboration with Orpha Thomas and Eleanor Clymer, she has applied her specialized knowledge to saving time and energy in running a home.

"Management in the Home" is now in its second edition.

"Giant Book of Games," by Frankel and Masters, should solve the problem of games for everyone from the ages of six to 60.

The book, which is really five volumes in one, contains icebreakers, stunts, parlour games, action games, quiz games and a variety of other entertainment material for all types of gatherings.

Are you on a committee which will serve luncheon to 200 people?

Are you planning on starting your holiday baking early for freezer storage?

Do you need to supply a dish for that family get-together?

"Quantity Cookery," by Nola Treat and Lenore Richards, can help you with menu planning and measurement requirements for recipes that will feed large groups.

All the above books were given to the Antioch Township library in memory of Mrs. Lester Nelson.

In time to help with the problem of what to make for Christmas presents, "McCall's Treasury of Needlecraft" will be very useful. This lovely book not only pictures many fine items to make, it also gives complete directions for making them.

"Table Setting for Everyone" by Dorothy Biddle and Dorothea Blom, discusses the origins of tableware and the basic pattern of the table.

From these fundamentals, they go on to discuss the imaginative selection of linens, silver, and china-ware and the decoration of the table or buffet for harmonious and beautiful effects.

Through the years, the library has built up a fine collection of cookbooks to help the homemaker with her greatest problem, the planning and preparation of delicious and nutritious meals.

"Good Housekeeping Cookbook" and "The General Foods Kitchen Cookbook," both of which contain many suggestions for meal planning besides recipes, have just been added to the collection.

The above books were presented in memory of Mrs. Anna J. Kopriwa.

New Classrooms Being Readied at Bristol Church

BRISTOL, Wis.—New Sunday School classrooms at the Bristol Methodist church are being readied for the reopening of classes on September 11.

Work on the church's $40,000 addition and remodeling program is in the "painting and varnishing" stage and the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Lembecke, said the help of volunteers from among members of the congregation is still welcomed.

Pastor Lembecke said the church's fall schedule for services will be resumed September 11, with a major change.

There will be an early worship service at 9:15 a.m. to coincide with the Sunday School session at the same time, for the convenience of parents.

There will be another worship service at 10:45 a.m.

However, Rev. Lembecke reminded members that the new schedule does not apply to this coming Sunday, September 4, when the regular 9:30 service is scheduled.

Sunday school classes are planned for all ages between 3 years and high school.

About 25 youngsters are expected in the spacious new kindergarten room, which will be divided into three areas—for play, stories and worship.

Total Sunday School enrollment is expected to be about 80.

Work on the entire renovation and addition program is coming along swiftly, the pastor reported. The contractor's portion of the project, representing $30,000 of the total cost, has been completed.

Remaining chores include finishing the woodwork, varnishing and painting, as well as "drying out" and finishing the basement.

Much of the work already has been contributed by members of the congregation and others. The plumbing and electrical work was done on donated time.

The Women's Society of Christian Service is raising money to pay for kitchen equipment. Among their fund raising projects is a bake sale scheduled this Saturday morning at Kroening's Bristol Food store.

The church addition will be consecrated at a service November 27, with the new Methodist bishop of Wisconsin, Rev. Ralph Alton of Madison officiating.

61 Boys Signed For Police Club At Lindenhurst

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

LINDENHURST—The Lindenhurst Junior Police club met Monday evening in the Men's club on Grand Avenue. Sixty-one boys are registered and over fifty were present.

It has been decided that they will meet the first and third Tuesdays of every month at 7 p. m. in the Men's club, from now on. The next meeting will be September 20. Tuesdays have been chosen so that it won't conflict with the Boy Scout meetings held Monday evenings. And twice a month so that it doesn't take up too much of their school time.

Boys are asked to bring a paper with this information written on it: Name, address, age, date of birth, height, weight, color of hair, and color of eyes. They are going to receive identification cards and this information is important, leaders said.

Boys were told that they will have to live up to the rules of the club or they will not be able to be in it.

When asked what the boys would like most to do, they all said "shoot." It was finally decided to start a bowling league for the boys, so the boys who wanted to bowl, registered.

Ron Coles, juvenile officer, said he thinks the boys can get student rates that will come to about 35 cents a line.

Police officers will provide transportation. They will probably bowl on a Saturday or Sunday afternoon.

Frank Calderone will teach the boys how to take pictures. They were all excited when "judo" was mentioned but Ron Coles told them how dangerous it was, so that sport will be put aside for a while.

Boys were told to keep out of excavations and new buildings. They could easily get hurt and no one would be around to help them. Or if something was broken or stolen they would be blamed for it. So the safest thing to do is to stay away from those places and help keep out of trouble.

TO THE DELLS WE GO

Friday, August 26 Troop 92 were going on a hike up Porcupine Mountain but the bus wouldn't go that far.

That night we slept in Jim Horton's field.

Saturday morning we got up and laid out our sleeping bags and blankets to dry, then we made breakfast and then about half of us went on the paper-drive and when we came back we ate lunch.

We rolled up our sleeping bags and the blankets, then worked on the bus.

We finished about half past 2, then we left about 3 that afternoon.

We arrived at the Dells about 9:30 that night and built a fire so we could see where we would sleep.

Sunday we got up and dressed, then ate breakfast.

We had mass in camp and then we picked up our belongings and ate lunch, we policed the area and left for home.

That night we ate at Marino's Pizza place.

We got home about 10:30 that night.

Village Warned...

pansion, the water main, the lift station and the Anita avenue to sewage plant sewer line would be the entire village.

Village board members pointed out that the water main mentioned would supply Oakwood Knolls Subdivision, North avenue area and Anita avenue industrial district with more volume and higher pressure.

Bonds would be issued to finance the sewage plant expansion and improving project. They might be general obligation bonds, special assessment bonds and/or revenue bonds.

A letter from C. W. Klassen, technical secretary of the Illinois sanitary water board, said, in part:

"As you recall, in our letters of August 4, 1958 and June 16, 1959, we directed your attention to the need for expansion of the sewage treatment plant to meet the increasing population of the village of Antioch.

"The present estimated population of the village... is approximately 2,200 persons. Flows to the plant have average in excess of 200,000 gallons per day...

"The existing sewage treatment facilities were designed to serve an equivalent population of 1,800 persons at an average daily flow of 180,000 gallons per day."

"Also a considerable load is placed on the sewage treatment works by the discharge of approximately 40,000 gallons per day of wastes... from the Willowdale dairy..."

Campfire Lights Scene as Scouts Of Troop 86 Receive Many Honors

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

CHANNEL LAKE—The gravel pit on Little Orchard farm, lit only by the flames of a campfire, provided a natural and beautiful setting for a court of honor of Boy Scout Troop 86 Saturday night, August 27.

The program opened with the voice of Mrs. Penny (Anderson) Kovalenko, singing "Indian Love Call."

The singer was hidden from the audience and the voice seemed to come from the distance.

From the darkness atop the walls of the pit, their bodies silhouetted against the sky, "Indian" chiefs in native garb spoke the Scout laws, aims and obligations.

Chiefs were Scoutmaster Ray Atwood and Assistant Scoutmasters Bill Young and Ray Van Patten, Jr.

As they finished speaking, a ball of fire slid from the rim of the pit to the prepared campfire, and the blaze lit the scene.

The Scouts, all in appropriate costume, did an Indian dance around the now-burning campfire.

After short speeches of welcome by Committeeman Russell Roepenack and Bill Young, Scoutmaster Atwood called the Scouts forward for the awards they had earned. Tim and Tom Roepenack received their tenderfoot pins and second class badges went to Bill and Charles Fox.

Merit badges went to Calvin Trussell for Basketry; Terry Senesman, basketry, rowing and hiking; Joe Ring, basketry, hiking and bird study; Thomas Hucker, basketry, wood carving, swimming and hiking; Mike Roepenack, basketry, rowing, cooking, personal fitness, pigeon raising.

Roger Eberman, basketry, life-saving, scholarship, camping, personal fitness and citizenship in the home; Al Gruidl, basketry, life-saving, home repairs, scholarship, athletics, hiking, camping and personal fitness.

Fiftieth anniversary achievement awards went to Al Gruidl, Mike Roepenack and Roger Eberman.

Atwood announced that Joe Ring had been awarded Star Scout in June. He is the second boy in Troop 86 to achieve this honor.

The first Star Scout in the troop was Mike Roepenack.

At the conclusion of the presentations, coffee and cup cakes were served by the auxiliary of Troop 86.

Bong Disposal Plans Talked

KANSASVILLE, Wis. — Co-operation between the federal government and a special committee named by Gov. Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin on the disposal of the abandoned Bong Air Force base was pledged this week.

John William Chapman, Jr., regional administrator of the general services administration, which will dispose of the base, said he will work closely with the committee.

He said he believes some Wisconsin agencies are considering whether to seek grants of a portion of the property and possibly part of the $15 million in improvements by the Air Force before the base was abandoned.

Chapman said it might take 30 days before his agency will be ready to survey the land for division into disposable parcels.

Burglars Hit at Paddock Lake, Salem Businesses

SALEM, Wis.—Salem and Paddock Lake areas were hit by burglars last Friday night and dense fog in this section helped burglars escape the clutches of the law that night, Kenosha county sheriff's deputies said.

Vet's service station in Salem village was the first to report a break-in when a neighbor told of someone trying to break into the place. A cash register had been opened after entry was gained through a window.

Deputies searched the Paddock Lake district afterward when one resident reported the pair were seen fleeing north on highway 83 afoot.

A rear door at Central high school was found open but there was no evidence of entry, deputies said.

A burglary at the Paddock Lake Drive-in was reported Saturday morning. The place was ransacked, deputies said, with an estimated 45 cartons of cigarettes being missing.

Deputies William Carr and William Trefz said it must have happened between the time they checked the drive-in about 3:30 a.m. Saturday and when the report was phoned to the sheriff's office just before 7 a.m.

Mrs. Frances Gerards of Antioch Receives Downey Hospital Award

DOWNEY VA HOSPITAL—Recently Mrs. Frances Gerards of Antioch, head nurse in the Downey Veterans hospital, has received an award of $50.

This was from the incentive awards committee for her suggestion and utilization of specially designed telephones in promoting re-motivation efforts with long-term psychiatric patients.

The teletrainer, provided by the Illinois Bell Telephone company as a telephone teaching aid to school, has proved to be an effective tool in re-motivating long-term psychiatric patients.

"One of the chief aims in working with psychiatric patients is to provide opportunity for improved communication," states Mrs. Gerards.

"Since the telephone is one of society's most frequently used methods of communication I felt that the telephone might be useful in stimulating communication among mental patients."

Mrs. Gerards described situations in which patients who had seldom spoken in many years, displayed interest in using the new model colored phones, and began to talk to other patients and ward staff.

Many patients in Mrs. Gerards' unit have been hospitalized for the past 20 to 30 years and have never used a dial telephone.

"Two of the aged patients had not used a phone since they cranked wall phones," Mrs. Gerards said.

"My patients readily accepted the 'practice phones' with the prospect that after learning to use these models they would be prepared to use a real telephone to call friends and relatives."

When Chet Wadsworth, assistant manager of the Veterans hospital presented the award for the suggestion to Mrs. Gerards he stated:

"This suggestion is particularly appreciated for it is another method of helping the long-term mental patient to help himself."

Mrs. Gerards has been employed at Downey since December 1954. She resides with her husband, Franz Gerards, on Route 173, two miles west of Antioch.

Holland Visitor At Lindenhurst

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

LINDENHURST — Mrs. Helena DeSwart of Amsterdam, Holland, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Benson (Helen) Tibbetts on Fairfield road. She arrived here about a month ago.

She is a jolly, friendly woman who doesn't speak or understand English very well, but is being taught rapidly by her three little grandchildren, Harry, 5, Helen 4 and Laura Mae, 3.

She plans to stay here six months. She visited Helen for six months back in 1955 when Helen lived in Chicago.

Helen took her mother downtown shopping in Marshall Field's recently. She said everything was more reasonably priced here.

Mrs. DeSwart has received quite a sustan since she arrived. She has an unmarried son, Peter, living in Chicago.

Another son William and his wife Joan, live in Hoboken, N. J. She may visit them before she goes home.

She plans on marrying a childhood sweetheart, who is also widowed, when she goes back to Holland. He said if she really likes it here, they will come here to live after they are married.

Helen has been in the United States for seven years. She married Benson six years ago.

They lived in Chicago until a year and a half ago, when they moved out here. He works for Perry Auto Parts in Lake Villa.

University of Illinois research shows farmers can stymie internal parasites in lambs by weaning or separating lambs from ewes on pasture.

The other Lawless children are Patrick, Michael, Barbara, James, Mary Kay and Arthur.

Maternal grandparents are John Scheffus of Lake Villa and Mrs. Augusta Scheffus of Chicago. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Katherine Lawless of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry (Donna) Hostetter of Cedar avenue, Lake Villa, are receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child, Dean Edmund, August 20, at Condell hospital. He weighed 7 lbs. 13 1/2 ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gordon of Burnett avenue are maternal grandparents. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oren Hostetter of Antioch.

Congratulations to Duane and June Walker of Granada boulevard, Venetian Village, on the birth of Debra Ann. She was born August 18 at St. Therese hospital. She tipped the scales at 6 lbs. 14 ounces at birth.

Final Season Races Set at Wilmot Track

WILMOT, Wis.—The powerful modified stock cars and the thrilling stock jaloopies will run their last races of the 1960 season Saturday, September 10, at the Kenosha County Fairgrounds Speedway in Wilmot.

No alternate race date is planned in the event of a rain-out.

The battle for track championship and recipient of the 1960 Chevrolet El Camino will wage up through the last race on the program.

Excluding time trials, there will be more than 140 laps of racing on the popular 1/4 mile dirt track.

The last night of racing will feature a 50 lap feature for the modifieds and a 25 lap feature for the stock jaloopies. Regular starting hours will be, time trials at 7 p.m. and first race at 8:30 p.m.

No change in admission.

Antioch, Lindenhurst Drivers Take Honors

WILMOT, Wis.—Bob Karry of Lindenhurst, and Red Murawake, Ray Toft and Bob Herner, all of Antioch, were involved in various ways during racing at the Wilmot Speedway last Saturday evening.

Karry took fifth place in the 25-lap feature event for modified stock cars and Murawake took the same spot in the 15-lap semi-feature.

The stock jaloopy events took the prize for the evening's racing when it came to thrills and spills. They set records in just about everything but speed.

Herner had to be different "took the prize" of the 10-lap heat race for the amateur drivers as he hit the judges' stand, something no one else did that evening, although just about everyone was involved in a mishap.

Toft finally won the 10-lap event with 44.01 m.p.h.

Wilmot High Plays Friday

WILMOT, Wis.—"We've got a lot of lettermen but not many veteran starters," was Coach Frank Buccell's capsule report on the Union High School Panthers, working out for their opening game Friday at 8 p.m. at Clinton High school.

Buccell explained that his key man is returning letterman Greg Bush, who will fill the quarterback spot. Bush was the only regular starter last year—most of the lettermen in the starting lineup served last year mostly as substitutes or as offensive or defensive men.

"Our team is smaller, but it should be faster," Buccell said. "It's good on offense, but a little weak on defense. Our main trouble is that we don't have the experience."

Probable starters in Friday night's clash are:

Krieger Winner In Auto Racing

WAUKEGAN — Milwaukeean Greg Krieger had things his own way as he captured the 25 lap main event for modified stocks at the Waukegan Speedway, Sunday night. He also set the fastest qualifying time for the 12th time in the 16 programs already held and performed his seventh win of the season.

Fans saw Krieger take the lead on the 16th lap when Cary Jensen, Mukwonago, Wis., spun out while leading the pack since the second lap of the event.

Jensen recovered from his spin to go on and place third in the race, turning in his best performance of the year.

A five car mixup on the third lap of the race put Ted Rozinski, West Allis, Bill Shoulders, Waukegan, Art Reeves, Libertyville, Paul Hollister, Northbrook, and Wally Burke, West Allis out of higher money positions.

The accident occurred when Hollister spun out causing a chain reaction pileup. It was at this point that Krieger moved into the second spot to begin his challenge of Jensen.

Jack Radtke, Grayslake, finished second to Krieger, about an eighth of a lap back.

Several spins and crashes in the semi-feature event dropped the finishing field to only nine cars out of the original 20 starters. Swede Erickson, piloting Roger Hag's number 5, took top honors at 46.90 m.p.h.

Softball Set For Weekend

Jim's Service will meet Thom-Eric at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and it will be Golfview vs. Pat's lounge starting about 9 p.m. in softball games scheduled for Saturday at the Golfview field north of Antioch.

Jim's and Thom-Eric will be playing for the third round championship of the Lake-Keno Softball league. The two were tied at the end of the regular season concluded two weeks ago.

The second contest Saturday evening under the floodlights will be the first game of a playoff series for the league title.

Winner of the first game Saturday will play the victor of the second contest that evening at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Golfview field.

Thom-Eric is defending league champion. Golfview won the first round championship in the 1960 season and second round honors went to Pat's Lounge.

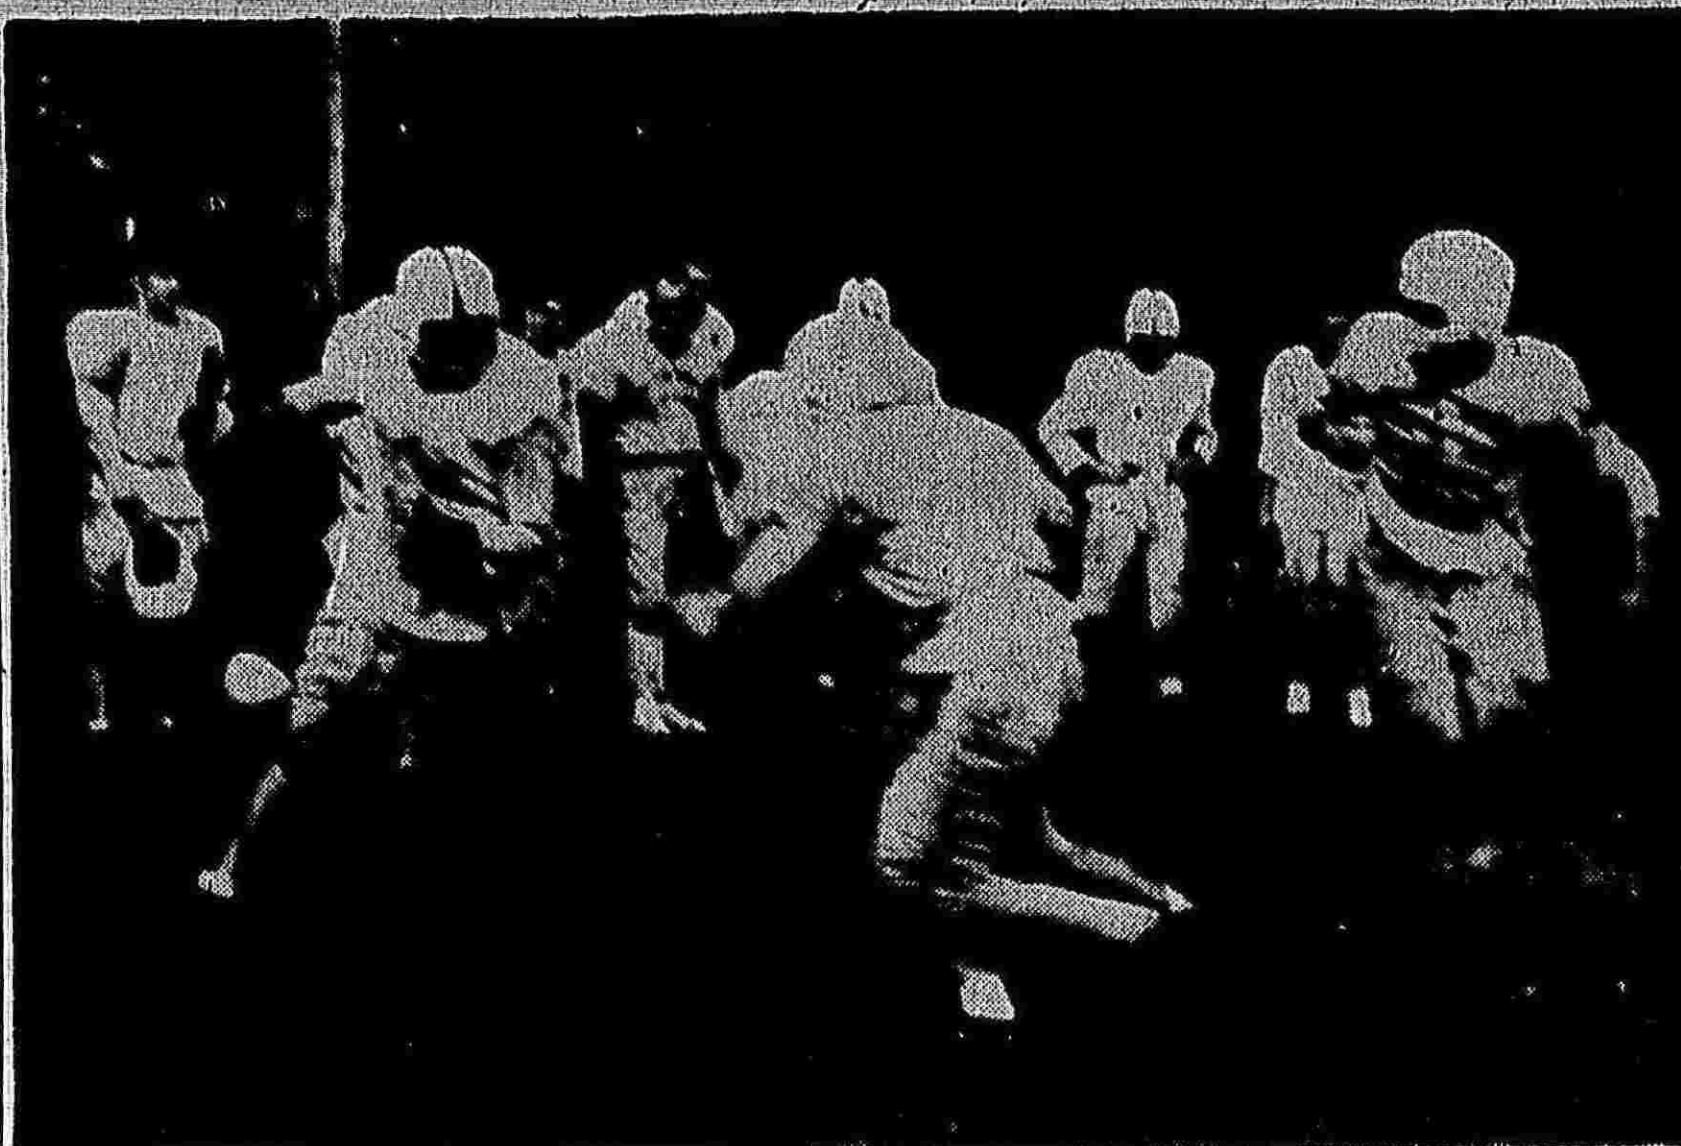

The field is located on highway 83 near the Wilmot road, about 4 miles north of Antioch.

There is plenty of parking area, bleachers and banking for spectators and no admission is charged.

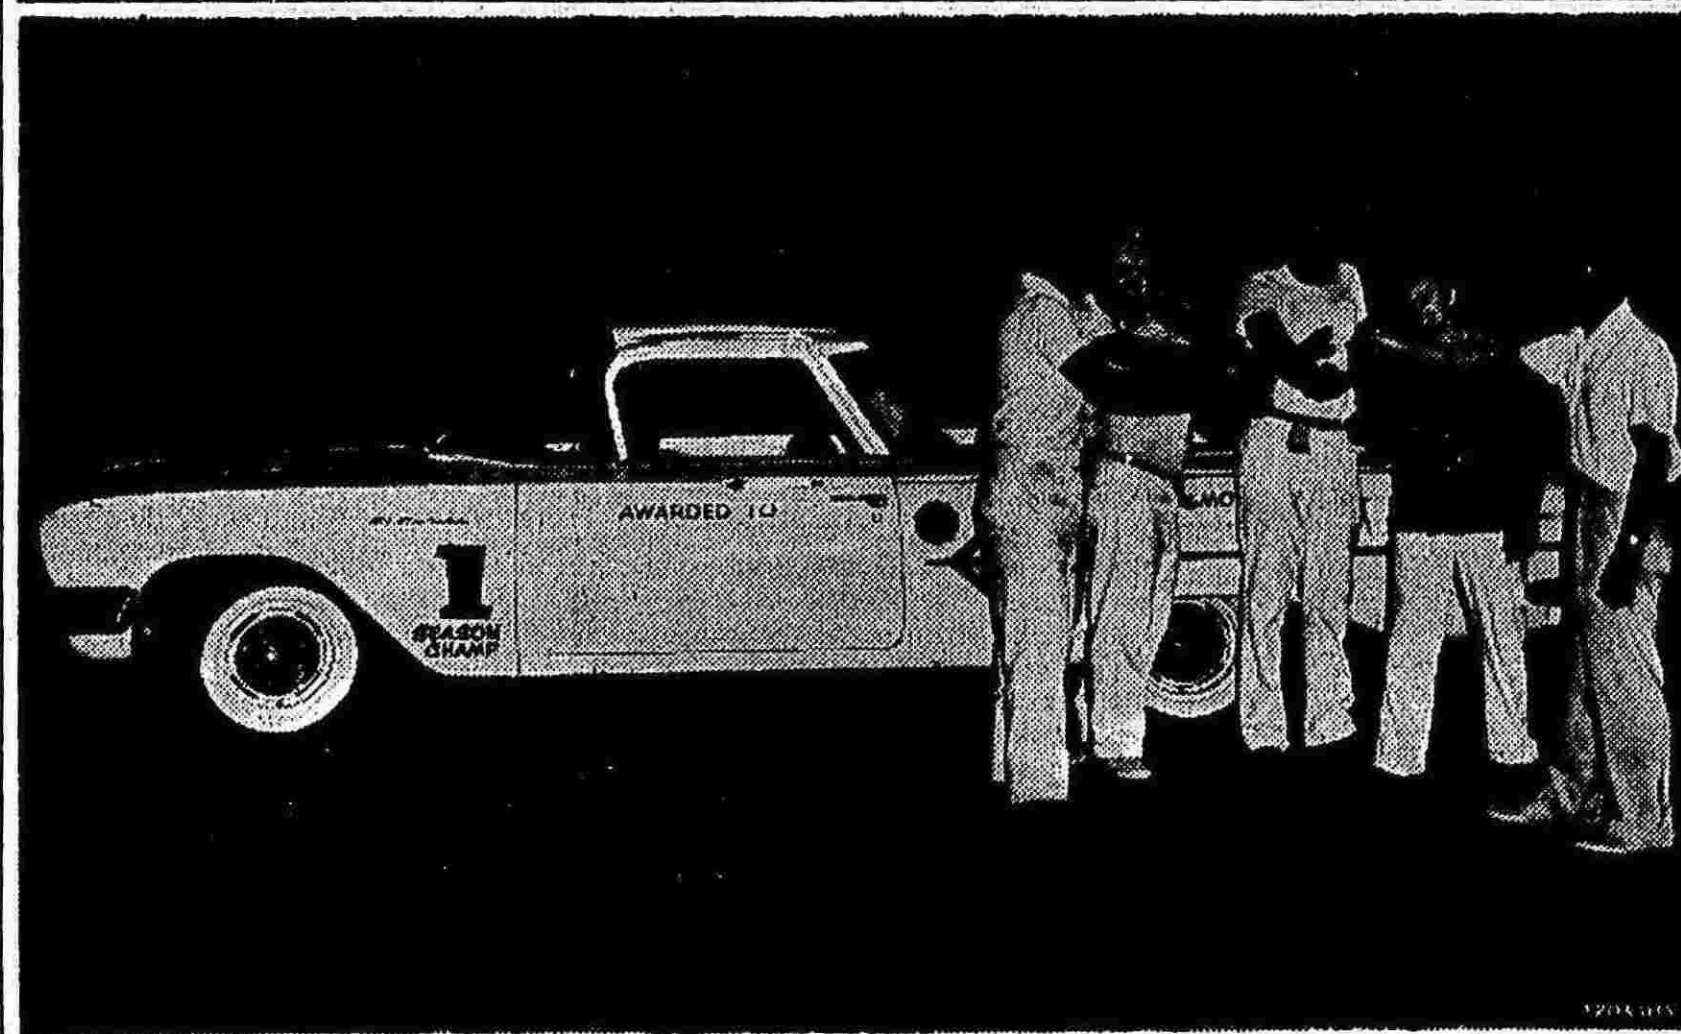

Tavern Bowling Loop To Open Next Monday

First action in the Tavern Bowling league will take place at 7 p.m. next Monday at the Antioch Bowl with 12 teams, the same as last season to take part.

The loop will compete Monday evenings during the 1960-61 season. Brass Corners tavern is defending champion.

ANTIOCH HIGH GRIDDERS were hard at work when the photographer stopped by late last week to watch them work out under a hot sun on the practice field just east of the Soo Line tracks. Here a ball carrier seeks to elude two would-be tacklers in a bit of scrimmage between backfield candidates. A second "offensive" player is at the right. Some of their teammates look on in the background along with head coach Bob Walters (in tee shirt, center). The Fighting Sequoias have been working on fundamentals, plays and good conditioning. They open at Wilmot high in a non-conference game September 16. (Antioch News photo)

Falcons Play Friday Night

PADDOCK LAKE, Wis.—Salem Central high school's Falcons take to the gridiron Friday at 8 p.m. in an all-important home game opener with the favored Lake Geneva Badgers.

In a traditionally gloomy pre-season sizeup, Coach Roger Terry said his charges "didn't look too good" in scrimmage last Friday with Burlington. "Offense, particularly, was weak," Coach Terry said.

He gave the following lineup of

HUNTING NEWS

SPRINGFIELD—Duck, coot and goose seasons to be in effect throughout the State of Illinois have been announced by director Glen D. Palmer of the department of conservation.

The duck and coot season will open statewide at noon on October 28 and continue through December 6. After opening day shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset.

A closed season has been declared on canvasback and redheads in an effort to help these two species return to a more normal population.

The ruddy duck, which was on the protected list last year, may be taken during the 1960 season as a good nesting period enabled this species to return to the abundant list.

The daily limit for ducks has been set at four and only one wood duck and one hooded merganser may be included in the daily limit.

Hunters may have eight ducks in possession after opening day, but possession limit of eight may include only one wood duck and one hooded merganser.

In addition, five American and redbreasted mergansers may be included in daily kill and 10 in the possession limit.

The daily limit on coot has been increased from four to six this year, and the possession limit after opening day is 12.

Goose season, with the exception of Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson counties, will be from noon, October 28 to December 6, inclusive. After opening day shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset.

In Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson counties, geese may be taken from sunrise to 3 p.m. November 1 to December 15, inclusive.

Daily goose limit will be five and is not to include more than one Canada or its subspecies, and one whitefronted goose, or two white fronted geese.

Possession limit is the same as the daily limit.

Illinois school buses traveled 59,369,513 miles in transporting school children for all purposes during the school year ending June 30, 1959. George T. Wilkins, superintendent of public instruction, pointed out that of this mileage, 54,633,878 was for transporting children to and from school, and 4,735,637 were extra-curricular miles.
